

Professional Development Institute
info@pdi.org.uk
+44 208 720 6582

Certificate in Humanitarian Leadership

Title	NGO management and leadership of senior humanitarian workers
About	The "NGO Management and Leadership Course for Senior Humanitarian Actors" is designed to equip senior leaders within humanitarian organizations with the specialized knowledge and skills to effectively manage and lead NGOs operating in complex humanitarian environments. This course covers a wide range of topics including strategic planning, financial management, leadership, advocacy, human resource management, governance, and accountability.
Target	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. NGO Managers2. Program Managers3. Team Leaders4. Senior field staff5. Members of the Board of Directors6. Donor representatives7. Government Officials8. Academics & Researchers
Learning outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Demonstrate an understanding of the unique challenges and opportunities in the management of NGOs in the humanitarian sector.2. Apply the principles of strategic planning to develop the goals and objectives of SMART for an NGO.3. Employ best practices in human resource management, including recruitment, performance management and employee development.

Professional Development Institute
info@pdi.org.uk
+44 208 720 6582

	<ol style="list-style-type: none">4. Establish and maintain good governance practices, including board management, risk management, and accountability mechanisms, within an NGO.5. Develop a comprehensive strategic plan for an NGO operating in a humanitarian context, integrating the principles of strategic planning, financial management, leadership, and advocacy.6. Read more below...
Duration	Seven weeks, 200 hours, 48 hours of self-study.
Implementation plan	The program consists of 7 modules. Each unit will run for a week and the timing will be agreed with the group or as needed.
Author	Professor Iyad Nasr
Facilitator	A group of senior academics, senior practitioners, and experts in the subject under.
Presentation methods	Discussion, lecture, role-play, teamwork, guest speakers and homework
Guest speakers	Experts, international officials, academics, and community leaders
Certification	"PDI" a member of the IAB group
Passing mark	60%