

Becoming an Accredited PDI Provider

PDI extends its global reach and impact by partnering with a carefully selected network of Accredited Training Providers (ATPs). These centres represent PDI in their respective regions, delivering our internationally recognized professional certificates with the highest standards of quality and integrity. PDI takes pride in working with a distinguished global community of providers, chosen based on their professional reputation, proven expertise, and commitment to excellence.

By partnering with trusted institutions in Europe, the Middle East, Africa, and Asia, PDI ensures that its programs are accessible globally while maintaining the highest international standards of quality and integrity. Through this network, candidates benefit from world-class training delivered locally, while becoming part of a truly global professional community.

Benefits of Becoming a PDI Accredited Provider

- Exclusive Authorization: Accredited centres gain the right to deliver PDI's internationally recognized professional certificates in their region.
- Global Reputation: Centres are linked with PDI's brand, which carries international prestige and credibility.
- Access to Resources: Providers receive official training materials, exam frameworks, and academic support directly from PDI.
- Market Differentiation: Centres stand out from competitors by offering globally benchmarked, UK-recognized certificates.
- Revenue & Growth Opportunities: Partnership opens doors to new client segments, corporate partnerships, and government projects.
- Professional Network: Accredited centres join PDI's global network of providers, enabling collaboration, knowledge exchange, and shared best practices.

Steps to Become an Accredited PDI Provider

We partner only with centres that uphold the highest standards of training, integrity, and professional reputation in their markets. This ensures that every candidate, regardless of where they are located, receives the same level of quality, professionalism, and international recognition that defines PDI. The pathway to becoming an ATC includes the following steps;

1. Application Submission

- Interested centres submit a formal application expressing their intent to become a PDI Accredited Provider.
- The application must include legal registration documents, proof of compliance with local regulatory frameworks, and a profile of training activities.

2. Initial Screening

- PDI conducts a comprehensive review of the centre's reputation, facilities, training history, and market presence.
- Only centres with a proven track record of professionalism, ethical practices, and high-quality delivery move forward.

3. Evaluation Against PDI Criteria

- Centres are assessed based on clear selection criteria, including:
 - Academic and training capacity (qualified trainers, facilities, technology).
 - Reputation and credibility in the professional community.
 - Commitment to compliance and quality assurance.
 - Market reach and ability to expand PDI's impact.

4. Approval & Accreditation

- Centres meeting the criteria are formally approved as PDI Accredited Providers.
- An accreditation certificate and provider agreement are issued, granting the centre authorization to deliver PDI programs.

5. Ongoing Monitoring & Renewal

- Accredited centres undergo periodic audits to ensure continuous compliance with PDI's standards.
- Accreditation is renewable, based on sustained performance, reputation, and adherence to PDI guidelines.
